

2010 High Plains Vineyard Tour

April 29, 2010

Sponsored by Texas Winegrape Growers Association and Texas AgriLIFE Extension Service, Terry County

- 10:00 a.m. Registration; parking lot of the Terry County Law Enforcement Center, 1311 Tahoka Road. We will have a Brownfield I.S.D. athletic bus for the tour; leave vehicles at the Law Enforcement Center.
- 10:15 a.m. Load Bus
- 10:30 a.m. Depart for tour
Mr. Jet Wilmeth and Scott A. Russell will provide background information as we travel. Visit vineyards in East Brownfield- noting replanting of vines and numerous additions to vineyards (new plantings)
Visit vineyards East of Brownfield
- 12:00 p.m. Arrive at Reddy Vineyards, Dr. Vijay Reddy
A "lite" lunch, finger foods
Dr. Terry Wheeler, Texas AgriLife Research Pathologist, Nematodes as Pests and Resistant Rootstock as a Management Tool
- 1:15 p.m. Reboard bus and depart
View vineyards South of Brownfield including several recently planted vineyards
Scott A. Russell, Extension Agent- Integrated Pest Management will discuss some of the regions insect pests and management options
- 2:00 p.m. Arrive at Dill Vineyard, Southwest of Brownfield
- 2:45 p.m. Continue Tour to the West of Brownfield
- 3:30 p.m. Return to Terry County Law Enforcement Center

IMPORTANT: Please RSVP to Texas AgriLIFE Extension Service, Terry County, phone 806.637.4060 or by e-mail sarussel@tamu.edu to reserve your seat. Please provide your name and address so we may forward a ticket to you. Space is limited!

RSVP by April 10, 2010 to insure your seat and lunch.