- Manufactures soft packaging products for wine and spirits industry.

AstraPouch® is the exclusive manufacturer of AstroPaq® and AstroMini® pouches and AstroBag® BIB bags, the cutting-edge leaders of soft packaging solutions for the wine and spirits industry. The company was started by longtime wine and spirits insider Dave Moynihan, a former executive at Constellation Brands and an expert in wine and spirits packaging.

With 30 years of experience of senior level supply, operations and logistics management to Fortune 500 companies, including Constellation Brands, ITT Corporation, Corning and PPG Industries, Dave brings the highest level of expertise and passion to his business. He has a consistent record of setting clear direction, building and inspiring teams, and successfully executing plans to meet short- and long-term corporate objectives. As the executive leader of AstraPouch®, he continues to set the bar high.
