We know that there are many decisions to make when choosing a wine cork, such as which cork, what quality, natural, synthetic or screw caps, what is the best for the wine, the market and above all your costs. We are here to provide you with the best advice to help you make your decision.

At ACIC we're committed to providing the best quality wine corks and closures to the wine market. Our wine corks are traditional, environmentally friendly, all-natural and produced using the latest in technology.

We're located in Napa, California and look forward to working with you!

What sets ACIC apart from the competition? We believe that our commitment to quality and service, from the largest wine companies in the world to the boutique winemakers.
