

2019 Lone Star International Wine Competition Gold Medal Promotional Wine Donation

Dear Winning Wineries

Congratulations on your medal wins at the 37th Annual Lone Star International Wine Competition.

As stated in the Competition Rules, all wineries who are awarded a Gold, Best in Category and/or Grand Star Medal agree to supply and ship without charge, their award winning wines to the Texas Wine and Grape Growers Association. The winning wine is used as promotional stock to be distributed at the discretion of the competition management team for the purpose of increasing the appreciation of wine in Texas.

In the coming days you will receive specific instruction as to what promo wines you are responsible for providing, however below identifies the wine submission requirements. If you are not sure of the medals awarded, please review the documents found on the LSIWC webpage.

The promotional wine donation obligation for each competition and category is noted below.
