US Wine Consumption Trends: Pre, During and Post COVID

The presentation will provide the results of the US-based survey designed to assess consumer wine behavior trends during lockdown and afterwards. The Texas wine industry leaders will provide real examples of changes in consumer behavior seen at wineries. Equally important, the presenters will suggest their predictions about consumer changes in 2021 and beyond.

Presenter: Natalia Velikova, Ph.D., Texas Wine Marketing Research Institute

11:00 am - 12:30 pm

Future of Wine Marketing: Capturing the attention of Millennials and Generation Z

We will explore how these two generations are different and how to capture them both with strategic marketing. We will answer which social media platform each generation prefers and how they prefer to be communicated to and shop. Includes wine industry examples along with key takeaways such as marketing tips, tactics, and tools you can actually use.

Presenter: Becca Ritz, Bauerhaus Design
