You're invited to take part in the Texas Wine & Grape Growers Association (TWGGA) 39th annual Lone Star International Wine Competition (LSIWC), October 12–13, 2022! As the oldest International Wine Competition in Texas, the LSIWC provides a showcase for recognizing the excellent quality and diversity of one of the fastest growing wine regions in the United States by promoting outstanding Texas wines.

LSIWC provides opportunities for wines in Texas (and beyond) to compete in four divisions: Texas competition, International competition, Limited Production competition, and Wine Label competition.

Eligibility Requirements

- All entries must be commercially available at the time of judging.
- Wines awarded a Gold, Best in Category, and Grand Star require submission of promotional wines to be used at the discretion of TWGGA.
- All fees must be paid at the time of entry submission.
- Wines must be received by the deadline to be entered into final judging.

Winner Benefits

- Listing of all medal award winners on TWGGA website and in TWGGA marketing.
- Ability to cite earned Competition Awards in all public relations and marketing.
- Access to digital medals and awards for use in online listings and promotions.
- Access to high-resolution point-of-sale bottle stickers.
- Professionally photographed bottles of Best in Category and Grand Star wine competition winners as well as the Best in Category and Best in Show wine label design competition.

Special Benefits for Texas Wineries

- Best in Category and Grand Star winners will be granted opportunities to showcase wines at TWGGA events, such as Grape Camp and the TWGGA Annual Conference & Trade Show.
- Best in Category and Grand Star winners will be showcased in TWGGA marketing.

For a complete list of requirements, due dates, shipping and delivery information, and judging processes, please review the Competition Handbook.
